

Introduction to FRx

Please join us for an introduction to FRx specifically designed for users of Microsoft Dynamics GP (formerly known as Great Plains). Learn how to create dozens of useful financial reports with the FRx building blocks. Altico's certified FRx trainer will walk you through some of the fundamental, time-saving capabilities of FRx, such as building block concepts, reporting trees and exporting to Excel. FRx is a powerful tool. If you want to use it to your advantage, this half-day class is for you.

Here are the course highlights:

- Creating reports using the FRx building blocks
- Row formats and column layouts
- Reporting trees
- Change base row feature
- Rounding options
- Side-by-side reports for comparative analyses
